PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Jacobsen: "Thank you Madam President. A point of personal privilege. It's an honor to announce that today is the 65th birthday for Vic Moon. I think he must have been our only prenatal employee. I can't imagine this place without Vic being around. Vic is in the wings some place. Would you be willing to step out so we could see you? Anyway, it's a real honor to speak and wish Vic a happy birthday and I know there's a lot of other members that want to do it too and he's not very happy with me right now but he does such a great job. The other thing is it's such a treasure to have somebody around here that you can just get some personal reminence about actually how these bills became a laws twenty and thirty years ago. You always wonder how did that happen. Well he can tell you how it happened. Happy Birthday Vic."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you Madam President. Vic Moon is older than I am and has been here longer than I have and of course he used to call me 'Senator No.' Vic, you're going to have to call me 'Senator maybe,' I'm changing as I age, and I hope you are too. Vic has been a tremendous help to all of us here who know him and we probably ask him a lot more questions than he has answers for but that's the only way we'll learn Vic."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hargrove: "Thank you Madam President. Well, Senator Jacobsen was incorrect. It's more like forty and fifty years of experience that he can go back on. The other thing that I really appreciate about Vic is when you bring him a stupid idea he can still make it sound like it's a good idea and really help you figure it out. Have you ever had him to anything, say anything to you but, 'That's a great idea, Senator' and 'I think we can work with that.' So I think all our staff should pay attention to that. I get a lot of other ones that say 'Boy that's a dumb idea'. Anyway, Vic we hope you stay around for at least thirty more years so that you can tell about some of things we did when we were here."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Oke: "Thank you Madam President. Vic, you're special to me. Fifteen years I've been in this body and fifteen years I've been in Natural Resources and you've grown me up and I'm almost looking older than you now, that's what worrying me. We call him 'Senator' in our committee and he responds to that very, very well. He's one of those folks around that you know you can trust and always doing the right job. He's always got such a wonderful tie on. I'm amazed at his daily changes of ties but you folks in the staff have made us look so good for so many years and we thank you. Happy Birthday Vic."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Stevens: "Thank you Madam President Pro Tempore. Also rising for as a point of personal privilege. I have gone to Vic many, many times in the Natural Resources Committee and asked him, 'Vic is this doable?' and I have yet to have him say, 'No Senator, we can't do that.' I have never heard him say that. I will ask him a question on how many roads are in the state of Washington that aren't paved and he will give me an answer. I will ask him, I've asked him how many fish in the sea and so far he's still looking. I know that whatever we asked of Vic he is always willing, he always comes with a can do attitude and in this place that is such a blessing. Thank you Vic and Happy Birthday."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fraser: "Thank you Madam President. Well, I'm probably the person in the room who has known Victor Moon the longest, since 1967 when we actually worked together. I remember way back then he gave me a book called 'The Political Imagination' and how that I'm finally on the committee that he works for I can see why you need a lot of imagination. Happy Birthday."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Senator Franklin: "I would just like to take this opportunity also to say to Vic. One of my first committees was the committee on which you are a staff and you were wonderful. I would like to say 'welcome to the golden age', it is not your age that matters. Age is only a state of mind and we are very, very bright so you see where I am. Your mind stays wonderful, so welcome to the golden age. Thank you."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. SCOPE. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) or (3) of this section, this chapter applies to a mediation in which:

(a) The mediation parties are required to mediate by statute or court or administrative agency rule or referred to mediation by a court, administrative agency, or arbitrator;

(b) The mediation parties and the mediator agree to mediate in a record that demonstrates an expectation that mediation communications will be privileged against disclosure; or

(c) The mediation parties use as a mediator an individual who holds himself or herself out as a mediator or the mediation is provided by a person that holds itself out as providing mediation.

(2) This chapter does not apply to a mediation:

(a) Conducted by a judge who might make a ruling on the case; or

(b) Conducted under the auspices of:

(i) A primary or secondary school if all the parties are students; or

(ii) A correctional institution for youths if all the parties are residents of that institution.

(3) If the parties agree in advance in a signed record, or a record of proceeding reflects agreement by the parties, that all or part of a mediation is not privileged, the privileges under sections 4 through 6 of this act do not apply to the mediation or part agreed upon. However, sections 4 through 6 of this act apply to a mediation communication made by a person that has not received actual notice of the agreement before the communication is made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. PRIVILEGE AGAINST DISCLOSURE; ADMISSIBILITY; DISCOVERY. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 6 of this act, a mediation communication is privileged as provided in subsection (2) of this section and is not subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in a proceeding unless waived or precluded as provided by section 5 of this act.

(c) A nonparty participant may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, a mediation communication of the nonparty participant.

(3) Evidence or information that is otherwise admissible or subject to discovery does not become inadmissible or protected from discovery solely by reason of its disclosure or use in a mediation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. WAIVER AND PRECLUSION OF PRIVILEGE. (1) A privilege under section 4 of this act may be waived in a record or orally during a proceeding if it is expressly waived by all parties to the mediation and:

(a) In the case of the privilege of a mediator, it is expressly waived by the mediator; and

(b) In the case of the privilege of a nonparty participant, it is expressly waived by the nonparty participant.

(2) A person that discloses or makes a representation about a mediation communication which prejudices another person in a proceeding is precluded from asserting a privilege under section 4 of this act, but only to the extent necessary for the person prejudiced to respond to the representation or disclosure.

(3) A person that intentionally uses a mediation to plan, attempt to commit, or commit a crime, or to conceal an ongoing crime or ongoing criminal activity is precluded from asserting a privilege under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. EXCEPTIONS TO PRIVILEGE.

(g) Sought or offered to prove or disprove abuse, neglect, abandonment, or exploitation in a proceeding in which a child or adult protective services agency is a party, unless the public agency participates in the child or adult protection mediation.

(2) There is no privilege under section 4 of this act if a court finds, after a hearing in camera, that the party seeking discovery or the proponent of the evidence has shown that the evidence is not otherwise available, that there is a need for the evidence that substantially outweighs the interest in protecting confidentiality, and that the mediation communication is sought or offered in:

(a) A criminal court proceeding involving a felony; or

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a proceeding to prove a claim to rescind or reform or a defense to avoid liability on a contract arising out of the mediation.

(3) A mediator may not be compelled to provide evidence of a mediation communication referred to in subsection (1)(f) or (2)(b) of this section.

(4) If a mediation communication is not privileged under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, only the portion of the communication necessary for the application of the exception from nondisclosure may be admitted. Admission of evidence under subsection (1) or (2) of this section does not render the evidence, or any other mediation communication, discoverable or admissible for any other purpose.

(5) Records of mediation communications that are privileged under this chapter are exempt from the requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. PROHIBITED MEDIATOR REPORTS. (3) A communication made in violation of subsection (1) of this section may not be considered by a court, administrative agency, or arbitrator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. CONFIDENTIALITY. Unless subject to chapter 42.30 RCW, mediation communications are confidential to the extent agreed by the parties or provided by other law or rule of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. MEDIATOR'S DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST; BACKGROUND. (1) Before accepting a mediation, an individual who is requested to serve as a mediator shall:

(a) Make an inquiry that is reasonable under the circumstances to determine whether there are any known facts that a reasonable individual would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the mediator, including a financial or personal interest in the outcome of the mediation and an existing or past relationship with a mediation party or foreseeable participant in the mediation; and

(b) Disclose any such known fact to the mediation parties as soon as is practical before accepting a mediation.

(2) If a mediator learns any fact described in subsection (1)(a) of this section after accepting a mediation, the mediator shall disclose it as soon as is practicable.

(3) At the request of a mediation party, an individual who is requested to serve as a mediator shall disclose the mediator's qualifications to mediate a dispute.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. PARTICIPATION IN MEDIATION. An attorney or other individual designated by a party may accompany the party to and participate in a mediation, except that if the dispute being mediated is the subject of pending proceedings under chapter 12.40 RCW, then a party may not be represented by an attorney in mediation unless the party may be represented by an attorney in the proceedings under chapter 12.40 RCW. A waiver of participation given before the mediation may be rescinded.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. RELATION TO ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES IN GLOBAL AND NATIONAL COMMERCE ACT. This chapter modifies, limits, or supersedes the federal electronic signatures in global and national commerce act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 16. RCW 7.75.050 and 1984 c 258 s 505 are each amended to read as follows:

Regardless of any provision to the contrary in chapter 42.17 RCW, all memoranda, work notes or products, or case files of centers established under this chapter are confidential and privileged and are not subject to disclosure in any judicial or administrative proceeding unless the court or administrative tribunal determines that the materials were submitted by a participant to the center for the purpose of avoiding discovery of the material in a subsequent proceeding. ((Any communication relating to the subject matter of the resolution made during the resolution process by any participant, mediator, or any other person is a privileged communication and is not subject to disclosure in any judicial or administrative proceeding unless all parties to the communication waive the privilege. If a mediation communication is not privileged under (a)(i) of this subsection or that portion of (a)(ii) of this subsection pertaining to judicial review, only the portion of the communication necessary for the application of the exception may be admitted, and such admission of evidence shall not render any other mediation communication discoverable or admissible except as may be provided in chapter 7.-- RCW (sections 1 through 12 and 20 through 23 of this act).
